COLLIER COUNTY FAIR

FAMILY BAR-B-Q COOKOFF

RULES

- Each team must furnish his/her own grill, charcoal, matches, supplies, etc. Whole chicken will be provided for each contestant. Please plan to provide samples of your food to three judges for tasting. Grill must be manned by one team member at all times.
- Contestants must use charcoal or wood burning grills. NO GAS GRILLS ALLOWED.
- Any raw or undercooked chicken will be disqualified.
- Team may cook chicken anyway they like as long as it is cooked on the grill.
- A box will be provided for chicken to be turned into the judges.
- All judging will be done using a number system.
- Each team is to bring a box or jar where tickets from the public can be placed for the People's Choice Award. The People's Choice Award will be based on the Publics judging of the overall Team's decorating of their grill and or cooking area as to how they have followed the Celebrating Family Traditions Theme. The Team with the most tickets wins.
- Each Team member will be provided a one day pass for entry into the Fair the day of the BBQ Cook-off Only. Any friends or family wishing to watch must pay gate admission.

Each team will be provided a 15x20 space. Contestants may bring in their own tables and or fire proof and fire approved pop up tents.
